NOTICE AS TO YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE AND OUR PRIVACY POLICY

Section 21 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires intending insured parties to tell us everything they know (or could reasonably be expected to know in the circumstances) which is relevant to our decision to accept the insurance risk. This duty applies before a contract of insurance is entered into and before any such contract is varied or renewed. Each party named as an insured has the same duty. You do not have to tell us anything that reduces the risk, that is common knowledge, that we already know or in the ordinary course of business we ought to know or what we indicate we do not want to know. In the event of a failure to make disclosure as required, the Underwriter may reduce its liability with regard to a claim or refuse to pay the claim entirely, may cancel the contract of insurance and where the failure is fraudulent may avoid the contract of insurance from inception.

We are bound by the National Privacy Principles formulated pursuant to the Privacy Act (c'mwealth) 1988.

In our dealings with you we will need to collect your personal information, the primary purpose of which is for a decision to be made on the acceptance of your insurance risk and on what terms and to handle your insurance claims.

In considering your risk and handling your claims we may need to disclose your personal information to our underwriter principal, loss assessors/adjusters, forensic experts, lawyers, insurance reference bureaux and your insurance broker. We may also need to disclose your information to our auditors or ASIC or APRA pursuant to their industry supervisory role or to any claims review body to which you may refer a claim.

Where it is reasonable and practicable for us we will only collect your personal information from you. Where feasible your anonymity will be protected.

Secondary purposes for collecting your information are: to provide information to our insurer principals; compiling (anonymous) statistics; reporting to parties with a legal right to require such knowledge; recoveries from insurers and the general operation of our business.

Sensitive Information about your race or ethnic origin, political opinions or associations, religious beliefs or affiliations, trade/professional membership/associations, sexual preferences/practises, health information or personal information that discloses a criminal record is not collected by us unless you consent or collection is required by law.

We will not use or disclose your personal information for any purpose other than the primary purpose of collection and we will only use or disclose other personal information for any secondary purpose, where: that purpose is related to the primary purpose of collection and you would reasonably expect disclosure for the secondary purpose; you consent to its use; we suspect unlawful activity and it is a necessary part of our investigation; the use or disclosure is authorised by law; or necessary for the prevention, investigation and punishment of crime or breaches of the law; is necessary to protect the revenue or is necessary for court proceedings.

If the information is health information, it will only be used for a secondary purpose where it is necessary for research or compilation of health statistics or to lessen or prevent a serious and imminent threat to life, health or safety or you otherwise consent to its use.

We will take all reasonable steps to protect your personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure and to ensure that it is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

Upon request we will take reasonable steps to let you know, generally what sort of personal information we hold, for what purposes and how we collect, hold, use and disclose your information.

Also upon request, we will make your personal information available to you (subject to the terms of The National Privacy Principles) and allow you to provide information that corrects any information that is incorrect, incomplete or out-of-date and any complaint you may have in relation to a privacy matter may, at your option, be dealt with by our internal dispute resolution procedures.

Further information may be obtained from our Compliance Manager, at the address below and on tel 02 82724800 fax 02 92472411.

What to do if you have a complaint?

About Lloyd's

Since the late seventeenth century, the name Lloyd's has been synonymous with insurance. Many of the world's leading underwriters are based at Lloyd's. The market is internationally renowned and has an impeccable claims record.

In Australia, Lloyd's is proud to be a member of the Insurance Council of Australia, and strives to comply with the agreement we have made under the General Insurance Code of Practice.

Our aim is to provide the highest service to our Australian policyholders and, to this end, we have developed the following procedures for the fair handling of complaints from Lloyd's policyholders.

How can we help you?

There are established procedures for dealing with complaints and disputes regarding your policy or claim. All policyholders can take advantage of the complaints service, as can third-party motor vehicle claimants who are uninsured and where the amount in dispute is less than $3,000.

Step 1

Any enquiry or complaint relating to a Lloyd's policy or claim should be addressed to either your Lloyd's insurance intermediary ("the coverholder") or to the administrator handling your claim in the first instance – in most cases this will resolve your grievance.

They will respond to your complaint within 15 business days provided they have all necessary information and have completed any investigation required. Where further information, assessment or investigation is required, they will agree to reasonable alternative timeframes with you. You will also be kept informed of the progress of your complaint.

Step 2

In the unlikely event that this does not resolve the matter or you are not satisfied with the way your complaint has been dealt with, you should contact Tracey Bryan at:

Lloyd's Australia Limited

Suite 2, Level 21 Angel Place
123 Pitt Street
Sydney NSW 2000

Telephone: (02) 9223 1433

Facsimile: (02) 9223 1466

Email: tracey@lloydsaustralia.com.au

When you lodge your dispute with us, we will usually require the following information:

- Name, address and telephone number of the policyholder
- The type of insurance policy involved
- Details of the policy concerned (policy and/or claim reference numbers, etc)
- Name and address of the insurance intermediary through whom the policy was obtained
- Details of the reasons for lodging the dispute
- Copies of any supporting documentation you believe may assist us in addressing your dispute appropriately.

Following receipt of your dispute, you will be advised whether your dispute will be handled by either Lloyd's Australia or the Policyholder & Market Assistance Department at Lloyd's in London:

- Where you are a retail client and your dispute is eligible for referral to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS), your dispute will be reviewed by a person at Lloyd's Australia with appropriate authority to deal with your dispute.
- Where you are a retail client and your dispute is not eligible for referral to the FOS, or where you are a wholesale client, Lloyd's Australia will refer your dispute to the Policyholder & Market Assistance Department at Lloyd's, who will then liaise directly with you.

How long will the Step 2 process take?

Your dispute will be acknowledged in writing within 5 business days of receipt, and you will be kept informed of the progress of our review of your dispute at least every 10 business days.

The length of time required to resolve a particular dispute will depend on the individual issues raised, however in most cases you will receive a full written response to your dispute within 15 business days of receipt, provided we have received all necessary information and have completed any investigation required.

Step 3

If your dispute is not resolved in a manner satisfactory to you, we will then provide retail clients eligible for referral to the FOS with details of that body. FOS is an independent body that operates nationally in Australia and aims to resolve disputes between you and your insurer. Your dispute must be referred to the FOS within 2 years of the date of our final decision.

Retail clients not eligible for referral to the FOS, and wholesale clients, may be eligible for referral to the Financial Ombudsman Service (UK). Such referral must occur within 6 months of the final decision by the Policyholder & Market Assistance Department at Lloyd's. Further details will be provided by the Policyholder & Market Assistance Department with their final decision to you.

How much will this procedure cost you?

This service is free of charge to policyholders.

The Underwriters accepting this insurance agree that:

- a) if a dispute arises under this insurance, this insurance will be subject to Australian law and practice and the Underwriters will submit to the jurisdiction of any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia;
- b) any summons notice or process to be served upon the Underwriters may be served upon:

Lloyd's Underwriters' General Representative in Australia
Suite 2, Level 21
Angel Place
123 Pitt Street
Sydney NSW 2000

- c) who has authority to accept service and to appear on the Underwriters' behalf;
- c) if a suit is instituted against any of the Underwriters, all Underwriters participating in this insurance will abide by the final decision of such Court or any competent Appellate Court.

This Certificate is issued by the Coverholder shown above in accordance with the authority granted to them by certain Underwriters at Lloyd's under the Agreement referred to in the Schedule.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Certificate has been signed at Sydney this Thursday, 3 December 2015.
