

Day 11 Thursday, 26th July.

The Prince of Wales 600yds x 15 shots, the last of the matches to count towards the Grand Aggregate, was shot in the morning. With the day's temperature climbing to 34°deg, humidity 41% and winds between 10-12mph it was again a tricky day.

Despite the weather conditions it was Australia's day.

The Australian team were successful in winning the Overseas Match with score of 1212.125 against Canada, Guernsey, Jersey and Kenya.

James Corbett was successful in winning the Grand Aggregate by two centres over Canada's Jim Paton. He also won his tie shoot against GB's Kelvin Ramsey giving him the St Georges I. He then went on to shoot the St Georges II at 6pm in the evening which he won with a score of 150.21.
